

Kenneth B. Meyer
Counsel

kmeyer@ef-law.com
Phone: (646) 780-8043

Education

- Cornell Law School (J.D., Managing Editor of the Cornell Law Review)
- Cornell University, College of Arts & Sciences (B.A. in History, cum laude and with distinction)

Bar Admissions

- New York

Court Admissions

- US District Court, Southern and Eastern Districts of New York

Kenneth is a seasoned litigator with extensive experience representing clients in complex civil and white-collar matters, including contracts, securities, antitrust, False Claims Act, Anti-Kickback, internal investigations, and other areas.

Before joining Elman Freiberg, Kenneth was in-house counsel at Novartis Pharmaceuticals Corp., where he advised business clients on a range of fraud and abuse issues and managed complex civil litigations. Kenneth began his legal career at Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP. He then served as a law clerk to the Honorable Paul A. Crotty of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. Following his clerkship, Kenneth worked as a litigator at Sidley Austin LLP, where he received the Pro Bono Publico award from the Legal Aid Society.

Selected Experience

- Defended large U.S. financial services institution in class actions alleging misrepresentations and omissions relating to offerings of mortgage-backed securities.
- Represented nine plaintiffs in a wage and hour litigation brought in the Southern District of New York pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act.
- Defended global pharmaceutical corporation in connection with allegations of off-label marketing and violations of False Claims Act and the Anti-Kickback Statute brought by the U.S. Department of Justice.
- Defended Japanese bank in a multi-district class action in the Southern District of New York involving federal and state antitrust claims alleging manipulation of LIBOR.
- Represented technology company in arbitration before the International Centre for Dispute Resolution to resolve antitrust, breach of contract, and tort claims against patentee.